1. LEGISLATION AND AUTHORITY

The Local Government Act 2009 (Qld)
Local Government Regulation 2012 (Qld)
Industrial Relations Act 2016(Qld)
YASC Code of Conduct

2. COUNCIL'S STATEMENT

Yarrabah Aboriginal Shire Council ('YASC') conducts its business with integrity, honesty and fairness. All employees are expected to work within the rules and actions of YASC will comply with all relevant laws, regulations, codes and corporate standards.

Everyone representing YASC must reflect the highest standards of behaviour. Our relationships are critical to the ongoing success of our organisation. Our leaders have responsibility for fostering a culture where ethical conduct is recognised, valued and applied at all levels.

This policy is to be read in conjunction with the Code of Conduct, which outlines our standards of behaviour and workplace culture are in accordance with YASC's principles.

3. PURPOSE

YASC is committed to supporting individual members of the public and community groups who choose to volunteer their time to enhance the provision of services to the community.

4. COMMENCEMENT OF POLICY

This Policy replaces all other volunteers policies of YASC (whether written or not).

5. APPLICATION OF THE POLICY

This policy applies to all YASC staff involved in the engagement of volunteer workers, and to all members of the public and community groups who perform voluntary work for YASC. This policy does not include:

- Any volunteering activities undertaken by YASC employees or contractors
- Work Experience or Student Placements
- Work for the Dole, Green Corps or other labour workplace/funded arrangements

6. PRINCIPLES

Voluntary positions are not to be created as an alternative to the appointment of paid employees and such work undertaken by a volunteer is not to replace work that would normally be completed by a paid employee.

Volunteer workers are obligated to observe the same standards of conduct as expected of paid council staff.

7. RESPONSIBILITY

The Chief Executive Officer, Directors and Managers are responsible for ensuring this policy is understood and adhered to by all councillors and staff.

Directors are responsible for the authorisation of the engagement of volunteer workers.

Supervisors of Volunteers are responsible for:

- the recruitment, selection and task site specific induction of volunteer workers;
- forwarding copies of Volunteer Worker Agreements to the Human Resources Department for retention in the Register of Volunteers;
- retaining all documentation relevant to the volunteer workers; and
- providing ongoing supervision and, where necessary, training of volunteer workers in their respective areas

The Human Resources Department is responsible for maintaining the Register of Volunteers.

8. DEFINITIONS

Blue Card – a card issued to adults confirming suitability to working with children. This card must be held by volunteer workers and/or supervisors where specified in a position description or otherwise directed or required by law.

Volunteer – a person who wishes to contribute to the community in useful and meaningful ways by undertaking activities of his/her free will, or to gain work experience, without monetary reward. Activities undertaken by volunteers will compliment rather than replace the activities of paid YASC staff.

Short Term Volunteer - for the purpose of this policy, is defined as a person who volunteers on a once off, short term or ad hoc basis, often as part of a community event.

9. POLICY

Managers may consider the use of volunteer positions to enhance service delivery to customers of council.

The following conditions apply prior to engaging a volunteer worker:

- volunteers under 15 years of age will only undertake work suitable to their age and will be required to provide a consent form signed by their parents or guardian. The consent form must include details as to the nature of the volunteer work to be undertaken;
- background checks must be conducted to confirm the validity of claimed relevant qualifications; and
- background checks of other aspects such as criminal history and currency of Blue Card (working with children) must be conducted where specified in a position description or otherwise directed or required by law.

Consideration must be given to the candidate's:

- knowledge and skills in the required field;
- physical ability to perform the range of tasks required; and
- motivation for undertaking the voluntary work.

Volunteer Workers at all times when performing work on behalf of YASC:

- must comply with all YASC policies and procedures including but not limited to the Workplace Health and Safety Policy and Code of Conduct;
- who are required to work with children under the age of 18 are required to have completed a Working With Children check and hold a current suitability card (Blue Card);

- will not be issued with YASC supplied clothing unless otherwise required for compliance with workplace health and safety requirements or for promotional purposes associated with a specific event or program;
- must wear appropriate clothing when performing work on behalf of YASC. Such clothing should maintain personal presentation standards appropriate to the task being conducted and must take into consideration workplace health and safety requirements.
- are permitted to use YASC fleet vehicles for the purposes of work related travel. The permitted travel cannot include travel to and from the volunteer's place of residence and the place of work.
- may withdraw their services, or a relevant manager may terminate a volunteer worker's services at any time by notifying the other party of their intentions.

Supervisors should familiarise themselves with Council's insurance coverage for volunteers.

10. VOLUNTEER APPLICATIONS & RECOGNITION

Any person applying to volunteer with YASC must complete an application in the prescribed form (at Appendix A) and forward to the Human Resources Department for registering.

Volunteers will be provided a Certificate recognising periods and areas in which they have volunteered with YASC.

11. VARIATIONS

YASC reserves the right to vary, replace or terminate this policy from time to time.
